

Dear Nanny Employer,

We hope this letter finds you well. We are writing to extend a heartfelt invitation to your nanny for our upcoming self-care retreat. This retreat is hosted by Nanny Tees and LA Nanny's Academy & Institute. The retreat will be held June 6-9, 2024 at They Hyatt Regency in Long Beach, CA. As someone who constantly gives so much to the children and families they care for, we believe it is important for nannies to take time for themselves and prioritize their own well-being.

The self-care retreat will be a dedicated period for relaxation, rejuvenation, and personal growth. During the retreat, attendees will have the opportunity to participate in various activities tailored to promote self-care and personal development. From stretch sessions and group therapy, to workshops on stress management and self-nurturing techniques, our aim is to provide nannies with tools and resources to enhance their overall well-being.

In addition to the enriching activities, there will be ample time for nannies to unwind, socialize, and connect with other nannies who share a similar passion for nurturing and caring for children. It will be an excellent opportunity to build a support network of like-minded individuals who can understand and empathize with the joys and challenges of the nanny profession.

We understand that taking time off work can be a concern, but we wholeheartedly believe that investing in self-care will ultimately benefit both nannies and the children they care for. As such, we encourage you to consider this opportunity to sponsor your nanny to attend the retreat. The general registration is $329. VIP registration is $429 and includes an early arrival on June 6th for an evening reception, and a spa day on Friday June 7th.

Please learn more about the retreat at www.nannytees.com/retreat.
